

McBride plc wins Best Annual Report

McBride plc, was in the spotlight once again on 21 June 2017, winning 'Best Annual Report' at the prestigious IR Magazine Awards 2017.

The IR Magazine Awards is an international event that celebrates the very best the Investor Relations community has to offer across the whole of Europe.

The judges commended McBride's 2016 Annual report for its simplicity and clarity, reaffirming McBride's status as a leader in best practice in the small/medium cap category.

Gary Eden, Head of Group Reporting and Analysis at McBride, and David Rattigan, Group Financial Controller accepted the award on behalf of the team.

Chris Smith, CFO at McBride commented 'we are extremely pleased and honoured to have won this IR Magazine Award. I know the significant time and effort that is dedicated by all of the team to delivering the end product. Our thanks go to IR magazine for the recognition and this prestigious accolade.'

The IR Magazine Award builds on last year's victory at the IR Society Best Practice Awards 2016, where the McBride's 2015 Annual Report was awarded for its newly unveiled strategy, clarity of communication and disclosure.
